Evening, 19th inst., the following resolutions were adopted unushimously:

Revolved, That as Whigs, we shall not soon forget the highly homorable course pursued by CHARLES M. SI-MONSON, Esq., in promptly declining to run as a stump cendidate, and urging all his friends to sustain the nomines of the Compressional Convention for the VIth District.

Resolved, That as the interests of the Xith and XVth Wards are largely identified—the citizens of both being engaged in building and sending abroad the ships which give wealth and homor to the country—so they should be united in the support of those political principles which are associated with mercantile and manufacturing prosperity; and we trust some fitting opportunity may hereafter occur, when the Whigs of the XVth may testify, in a more substantial namer, their appreciation of the real with which the Whigs of the XIth Ward have ever labored to accomplish such a result, having always and stremuously fought against a formulable opposition.

ble opposition.

Resolved, That acopy of these resolutions be forwarded to Mr. Sincensen and to the Chairman of the XIth Ward Committee, and that they be published. [Signed]

UNCLE TOM IN ENGLAND: A Proof that
Black's White. An Echo to the American Uncle Tom.

From an advance copy from England.—This is the most powerfully written work on the institution of Slavery that has ever been published. It has reached a sale in England, although published but a few weeks since, totally unprocedented in that country, and rivaling that of Mrs. Stowe "Uncle Tom" in the United States. It is full of thrilling scenes and descriptions, depicting slave life, both on board the slave-ship and on the plantations of the South. From the first page to the last, the interest of the narrative is absorbing, chaining the attention of the reader with a wonderful power; and the whole work is of that character calculated to produce a great sensation, and to create for it an immense demand in the United States. Price 25 cents. A. D. FAILING, No. 22 Aun-st.
